Greetings,

We have had to prioritise the completion of the Rhodesia Regiment book project which has left us no spare time for writing newsletters - sorry.

This is a very brief newsletter in order to let you know that we are still here and remind Antipodeans to make arrangements for ANZAC Day on 25 April. We are also releasing information on the change of venue for the October 2014 RV. Read on for details.

We have raised a new section on our website to facilitate the running of on-line auctions. Our intentions are that we will run auctions to benefit our Association. In addition we will run auctions for other Rhodesian linked associations at no charge. We will run auctions where the beneficiary is an individual for a 10% commission. Email thecqstore@rhodesianservices.org for more information.

We have a number of auctions up and running currently (including an interesting one for the smokers) – please go and visit <http://www.rhodesianservices.org/auctions.htm>

To take full advantage of the facility please register – it costs nothing to register and we don't ask for your bank account number. It is all quite safe (make sure that you put in your correct email address and make a note of your password). Once you are registered you will then get an email whenever a new auction is loaded.

We have some exciting prospects from warthog tusk bottle openers to a David Shepherd original painting of an elephant. We will also be auctioning two handmade sheath knives that commemorate the 1st and 2nd Rhodesia Regiments from WWI.

Eddy Norris who instigated and ran ORAFS (Old Rhodesian Air Force Sods) died on 3 April 2104. We received this email:

"It is with profound sorrow that we advise of the passing of our much beloved husband, father and grandfather, Edward Leslie Norris on 03 April 2014, at 21h30.

We were so honoured to have shared our lives with Eddy, he was an Umtali Boy and a true son of Rhodesia. At last Dad, you have your peace and rest and a big hooley in that Great Hanger in the sky.

Thank you Dad for everything and showing us the way - a gentleman to the very end, and a true legend. With great pride and love- As always, Trisha, Paul, Denise, Brenda, Shumba, Gaby, Caitlin and Caleb"

A great selection of books, many with a Rhodesian connection, can be found on the link above. All prices are in NZ$ and do not include postage.

We have stacks of new titles for more details go on line www.rhodesianservices.org/Books.htm

Our most recent addition is:

Weep for Africa - A Rhodesian Light Infantry Paratrooper's Farewell to Innocence by Jeremy Hall NZ$40 plus P&P. Soft cover.

Jeremy Hall's childhood in the white-ruled apartheid South Africa of the 1950s and '60s was ostensibly idyllic: growing up in the farming areas of Natal, he had free rein to pander to his keen exploratory mind, yet niggling away was entrenched racism and interracial hatred.

Closeted in the hallowed halls of an English-speaking high school, the revelation of the real world that followed – a world of township unrest, Afrikaner politicians issuing dire warnings of the red and black hordes massing on the borders – exploded into Hall's psyche with his national-service call-up into the South African Defence Force (SADF), where he encountered the institutionalized hatred of the Afrikaner hierarchy for the English-speaking recruits, the rowe, or 'scabs'.

Disillusioned and unsettled, following his SADF conscription, Hall found himself in 1976 signing on for three years with 2 Commando The Rhodesian Light Infantry as the bush war in that country erupted from a simmering, low-key insurgency into full-blown war.

As a paratrooper with this crack airborne unit, he was to see continual combat on Fireforce operations and cross-border raids into Zambia and Mozambique, such as Operation Dingo, the 1977 Rhodesian attack on ZANLA's Chimoio base.

The dustcover above is the finished product showing the front, spine and back. The back flap has details of three of the authors.

The front flap has details of the cover per below:

A great deal of importance has been placed on the design of the dust cover of this book, to which end a number of people have had a hand in its design over a period of several years. The main photo was supplied by Mike Simpkins; taken in 1961 at Llewellyn Barracks it shows Intake 41, B Company, Depot Royal Rhodesia Regiment. The soldiers who can be seen full face in the foreground of the photo are identified as (L-R):

WOII Alf Leppert (Instructor)

Rfn LL Badam-Thornhill (ditto)

Rfn AV Knott (ditto)

In this photo Instructor WOII Leppert is in the uniform of the Northern Rhodesia Regiment. He saw many years of service in the army and his final posting was as Battalion Quartermaster with 4th (Manicaland) Battalion Rhodesia Regiment, by which time he was commissioned and had reached the rank of Captain. He was awarded the Defence Force Medal for Meritorious Service in 1976.

The Rhodesia Regiment badge on the front cover is the Helmet Plate worn circa 1927.

The Regimental Colours - black, red and rifle green are depicted along the lower edge.

The back cover centre piece is taken from the last flag to be flown by the 1st Battalion Rhodesia Regiment. This was presented to Col Norman Gourlay Jardine ICD, OBE, TD for safe keeping in 1980. The flag is now on display in the Rhodesian Services Association archives. It shows the final badge used by the Rhodesia Regiment, as well as the Battle Honours won by the Regiment throughout its proud history.

The photo on the spine is of the person who most influenced the production of this book - Sgt Peter Bomford who, along with thousands of WWII volunteers, began their service in the Rhodesia Regiment. He was later awarded the Military Cross while attached to the 1st Gurkha Regiment, 21 (East Africa) Infantry Brigade in Burma. This photo pays tribute to, and is representative of the personnel who volunteered for service during WWII, initiating their training with the Rhodesia Regiment and then becoming attached to units throughout the British Empire for the duration of hostilities. Of those who returned from WWII, many went on to form the nucleus of what became the final phase of the Rhodesia Regiment.

The authors et al

We have a list of over 400 people who have supplied information. We have around 2,500 photos and illustrations to choose from for inclusion in the book. In addition to the named authors – Peter Baxter, Hugh Bomford and Gerry van Tonder, the following have written chapters or appendices on their own or in co-ordination with the other authors:

Craig Fourie
Tony Fraser
Adrian Haggett

The following list is of those people who have made significant contribution to the project:

Nick Baalbergen
Diana Bomford
Chris Cocks
Kerrin Cocks
John Lomas
Tinka Mushett
Dudley Wall
Mike Vivier

This book has, in all essence, been a product of a "committee effort". However, unlike some committees that bicker and muddle along - this project has been more on the lines of a military operation where there has been a job to do and everyone has given their best for the ultimate objective.

As co-ordinator of this project, I (Hugh Bomford), thank everyone who has put their shoulders to the wheel.

Keep watch on this newsletter as well as this web page <http://www.rhodesianservices.org/rhodesia-regiment.htm> for updates and pre-publication offers.

Celebrate 'Rhodesia Day'* on the 11th November each year

*The concept of 'Rhodesia Day' originates from Eddy Norris and family. During the 90 year life span of Rhodesia we experienced the best of times and the worst of times. I encourage everyone to use this day to remember the good times as well as remembering those who are no longer with us.
