26 March 1918:

Major Rothesay Egerton SEYMOUR

1st Rhodesia Regiment and Belfield's Scouts

East African Intelligence Department

Citation: "For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He has repeatedly performed marked acts of courage and initiative, and he has on two occasions attacked and routed enemy patrols, though greatly outnumbered. Within the last two months he has himself accounted for sixteen of the enemy during various patrol encounters, and has burned large quantities of enemy supplies, his work being magnificent throughout."
